

Author-Subject Index

Volume 3

Author Index

- Adelman, Stanley I., "Closing the bookends communication gap—the link between trainers of teachers and potential teachers can be strengthened," No. 1, p. 16.
- Bainbridge, William L., "Home-school advisory council evaluation—how to conduct an assessment of your advisory committees," No. 4, p. 10.
- Ban, John R., "Closing the bookends communication gap—the link between trainers of teachers and potential teachers can be strengthened," No. 1, p. 16.
- Biggs, Carroll W., "11 School districts merge to desegregate smoothly—the master key to peaceful desegregation in Delaware was factual and timely communication," No. 4, p. 4.
- Bortner, Doyle M., "Benchmarks for school public relations—use this list for 168 items to measure your district's public relations," No. 2, p. 8.
- Boyer, Ernest L., "Let's get back to basics in our use of the English language—the U.S. Commissioner urges us to get rid of verbal fog," No. 4, p. 14.
- Erxleben, Al E., "A positive media event—reporters take a test," No. 1, p. 30.
- Finke, Sandra E., "The National PTA—the country's largest volunteer child advocacy group moves from passive cooperation to active participation," No. 2, p. 22.
- Finke, Jack Anson, "Bliss Symbols—a language based on the meanings of words for use by and with physically handicapped people," No. 4, p. 18.
- Goble, Nick, "Challenges to NSPRA and communicators—1980s," No. 3, p. 18.
- Hagarty, Ambrose W., "NASEDIO—the association for state department information specialists," No. 1, p. 18.
- Handler, Marcia E., "Elementary students as reporters and photographers," No. 1, p. 12.
- Holliday, Albert E., "Columbus tries school without schools," No. 1, p. 4; "Self-evaluation—a growth device for boards," No. 3, p. 7.
- Hymes, Don, "How to exorcise jargon," No. 3, p. 6.
- Kendall, Robert, "Photography and copyright—what pros, public relations practitioners and publishers should know about the revised Copyright Act," No. 4, p. 26.
- Litwin, Larry, "Strengthen communication ties with your substitutes—increased loyalty is one benefit of better PR with valued outside teachers," No. 2, p. 20.
- Magruder, Donald R., "Bargaining in a goldfish bowl—collective bargaining in the public sector takes place in the sunshine in Florida," No. 1, p. 26.
- Morris, James L., "Missouri citizens speak out—how the Missouri Department of Education learned opinions of citizens about school discipline," No. 3, p. 30.
- Murphy, Joseph F., "Home-school advisory council evaluation—how to conduct an assessment of your advisory committees," No. 4, p. 10.
- Novak, Naomi Rock, "Communicating research results—how to inform the public of research being done at higher education institutions," No. 4, p. 23.
- Powell, Frances, "Women (and men) on the management team—attitude adjustment is the key to successful school administration," No. 2, p. 4.
- Robinson, Thomas E., "Reviews of new books," No. 1, p. 34; No. 2, p. 32; No. 3, p. 34; No. 4, p. 38;

"NSPRA yesterday, today and tomorrow—a case for a school communication officer-1966," No. 3, p. 10.

Toogood, Alex, "Broadcasting in British schools—how the BBC uses radio and television in the education process," No. 3, p. 20.

Wherry, John, "The state of the school PR profession-1979," No. 3, p. 12.

Wirt, Connie, "Communication through home visits by teachers—a 4th grade teacher tried home visits and found them to be professionally productive and personally gratifying," No. 1, p. 10.

Zambito, Susan Atteridge, "A new PR person can handle a teachers' strike without being bowled over—practical, firsthand advice for PR novices faced with a strike," No. 2, p. 27.

Subject Index

Administration

"Women (and men) on the management team—attitude adjustment is the key to successful school administration," Frances Powell, No. 2, p. 4.

Audio-Visuals [TV, Radio, Telephone, Slide-Tapes]

"Broadcasting in British schools—how the BBC uses radio and television in the education process," Alex Toogood, No. 3, p. 20.

Communication Processes

"Bargaining in a goldfish bowl—collective bargaining in the public sector takes place in the sunshine in Florida," Donald R. Magruder, No. 1, p. 26.

"Bliss Symbols—a language based on the meanings of words for use by and

Author-Subject Index

Volume 3

Author Index

- Adelman, Stanley I., "Closing the bookends communication gap—the link between trainers of teachers and potential teachers can be strengthened," No. 1, p. 16.
- Bainbridge, William L., "Home-school advisory council evaluation—how to conduct an assessment of your advisory committees," No. 4, p. 10.
- Ban, John R., "Closing the bookends communication gap—the link between trainers of teachers and potential teachers can be strengthened," No. 1, p. 16.
- Biggs, Carroll W., "11 School districts merge to desegregate smoothly—the master key to peaceful desegregation in Delaware was factual and timely communication," No. 4, p. 4.
- Bortner, Doyle M., "Benchmarks for school public relations—use this list for 168 items to measure your district's public relations," No. 2, p. 8.
- Boyer, Ernest L., "Let's get back to basics in our use of the English language—the U.S. Commissioner urges us to get rid of verbal fog," No. 4, p. 14.
- Erxleben, Al E., "A positive media event—reporters take a test," No. 1, p. 30.
- Finke, Sandra E., "The National PTA—the country's largest volunteer child advocacy group moves from passive cooperation to active participation," No. 2, p. 22.
- Finke, Jack Anson, "Bliss Symbols—a language based on the meanings of words for use by and with physically handicapped people," No. 4, p. 18.
- Goble, Nick, "Challenges to NSPRA and communicators—1980s," No. 3, p. 18.
- Hagarty, Ambrose W., "NASEDIO—the association for state department information specialists," No. 1, p. 18.
- Handler, Marcia E., "Elementary students as reporters and photographers," No. 1, p. 12.
- Holliday, Albert E., "Columbus tries school without schools," No. 1, p. 4; "Self-evaluation—a growth device for boards," No. 3, p. 7.
- Hymes, Don, "How to exorcise jargon," No. 3, p. 6.
- Kendall, Robert, "Photography and copyright—what pros, public relations practitioners and publishers should know about the revised Copyright Act," No. 4, p. 26.
- Litwin, Larry, "Strengthen communication ties with your substitutes—increased loyalty is one benefit of better PR with valued outside teachers," No. 2, p. 20.
- Magruder, Donald R., "Bargaining in a goldfish bowl—collective bargaining in the public sector takes place in the sunshine in Florida," No. 1, p. 26.
- Morris, James L., "Missouri citizens speak out—how the Missouri Department of Education learned opinions of citizens about school discipline," No. 3, p. 30.
- Murphy, Joseph F., "Home-school advisory council evaluation—how to conduct an assessment of your advisory committees," No. 4, p. 10.
- Novak, Naomi Rock, "Communicating research results—how to inform the public of research being done at higher education institutions," No. 4, p. 23.
- Powell, Frances, "Women (and men) on the management team—attitude adjustment is the key to successful school administration," No. 2, p. 4.
- Robinson, Thomas E., "Reviews of new books," No. 1, p. 34; No. 2, p. 32; No. 3, p. 34; No. 4, p. 38;

"NSPRA yesterday, today and tomorrow—a case for a school communication officer-1966," No. 3, p. 10.

Toogood, Alex, "Broadcasting in British schools—how the BBC uses radio and television in the education process," No. 3, p. 20.

Wherry, John, "The state of the school PR profession-1979," No. 3, p. 12.

Wirt, Connie, "Communication through home visits by teachers—a 4th grade teacher tried home visits and found them to be professionally productive and personally gratifying," No. 1, p. 10.

Zambito, Susan Atteridge, "A new PR person can handle a teachers' strike without being bowled over—practical, firsthand advice for PR novices faced with a strike," No. 2, p. 27.

Subject Index

Administration

"Women (and men) on the management team—attitude adjustment is the key to successful school administration," Frances Powell, No. 2, p. 4.

Audio-Visuals [TV, Radio, Telephone, Slide-Tapes]

"Broadcasting in British schools—how the BBC uses radio and television in the education process," Alex Toogood, No. 3, p. 20.

Communication Processes

"Bargaining in a goldfish bowl—collective bargaining in the public sector takes place in the sunshine in Florida," Donald R. Magruder, No. 1, p. 26.

"Bliss Symbols—a language based on the meanings of words for use by and with physically handicapped people," Jack Anson Finke, No. 3, p. 18.

"Communicating research results—how to inform the public of research being done at higher education institutions," Naomi Rock Novak, No. 4, p. 23.

"Communication through home visits by teachers—a 4th grade teacher tried home visits and found them to be professionally productive and personally gratifying," Connie Wirt, No. 1, p. 10.

"Closing the bookends communication gap—the link between trainers of teachers and potential teachers can be strengthened," Stanley I. Adelman and John R. Ban, No. 1, p. 16.

"11 School districts merge to desegregate smoothly—the master key to peaceful desegregation in Delaware was factual and timely communication," Carroll W. Biggs, No. 4, p. 4.

"Individualized Educational Plans—opportunities for positive public relations among parents, students and teachers," Chuck Davis, No. 4, p. 14.

"Missouri citizens speak out—how the Missouri Department of Education learned opinions of citizens about school discipline," James L. Morris, No. 3, p. 30.

"A new PR person can handle a teachers' strike without being bowled over—practical firsthand advice for PR novices faced with a strike," Susan Atteridge Zambito, No. 2, p. 27.

Competition

"Winners of the 2nd Annual JEC Communication Competition," No. 3, p. 24.

Evaluation

"Benchmarks for school public relations—use this list for 168 items to measure your district's public relations," Doyle M. Bortner, No. 2, p. 8.

"Home-school advisory council evaluation—how to conduct an assessment of your advisory committees," William L. Bainbridge, No. 4, p. 10.

"Self-evaluation—a growth device for boards," Albert E. Holliday, No. 3, p. 7.

Facilities

"Columbus tries school without schools," Albert E. Holliday, No. 1, p. 4.

Involvement

"Elementary students as reporters and photographers," Marcia E. Handler, No. 1, p. 12.

News Media

"A positive media event—reporters take a test," Al E. Erxleben, No. 1, p. 30.

Organization Profiles

"Challenges to NSPRA and communicators- 1980s," Nick Goble, No. 3, p. 18.

"NASADIO—the association for state department information specialists," Ambrose W. Hagarty, No. 1, p. 18.

"NSPRA yesterday, today and tomorrow—a case for a school communication officer- 1966," Thomas E. Robinson, No. 3, p. 10.

"The National PTA—the country's largest volunteer child advocacy group moves from passive cooperation to active participation," Sandra E. Fink, No. 2, p. 22.

"The state of the school PR profession- 1979," John Wherry, No. 3, p. 12.

Publications

"How to exorcise jargon," Don Hymes, No. 3, p. 6.

"Let's get back to basics in our use of the English language—the U.S. Commissioner urges us to get rid of verbal fog," Ernest L. Boyer, No. 2, p. 30.

"Photography and copyright—what pros, public relations practitioners and publishers should know about the revised Copyright Act," Robert Kendall, No. 4, p. 26.

Book Reviews

No. 1, pp. 34-35.

Fund Raising by Parent/Citizen Groups, Leadership for Parent/Citizen Groups, Morris Dictionary or Word and Phrase Origins, Newsletter Graphics, Parents Organizing to Improve Schools, Successful Public Relations Techniques, Your Guide to the New Copyright Law.

No. 2, pp. 32-33.

An Organic Guide to School Public Relations, Building Public Confidence in Your Schools, Community, Junior and Technical Colleges: A Public Relations Sourcebook, Harper Dictionary of Contemporary Usage, Some Basics for Boards of Education.

No. 3, pp. 34-35.

A Concerned Citizen's Guide to Community School Centers, Education Laws 1978: A Guide to New Directions in Federal Aid, Facility Issues in Community School Centers, Managing Community School Centers, Prescriptions for School-Community Relations, Public Relations, the Edward Bernayses and the American Scene: A Bibliography, A Resource Book on Community School Centers, Using Surplus School Space for Community School Centers.

No. 4, pp. 38-39.

Alternative Schools: Why, What, Where and How Much, Communication During Negotiations/Strikes, Communication Handbook for School Board Members, Educating all the Handicapped: What the Laws Say and What Schools Are Doing, The Funding Process: Grantsmanship and Proposal Development, How to Start and Improve a PR Program, Linking Schools and the Community, PR for School Board Members, Radio: Your Publics Are Listening, The Rights of Parents in the Education of Their Children, Who Controls Our Schools? Writers' and Artists' Rights: The New American Copyright Law. By Thomas E. Robinson. ■